Remarks:

- Each partial execution is considered a trade for the purposes of assessing a "per trade" fee.
- If multiple transactions are made on the same bond in the same direction on the same day, such transactions cannot be combined and are counted as multiple orders; if the same order is traded across multiple days, such transactions cannot be combined and are counted as multiple orders.
- Add Liquidity: Adding an order to an exchange or ECN's order book before being executed
- Remove Liquidity: Orders that are immediately executed against an existing bid or offer on an exchange's or ECN's order book.
- Exchange fees may include the liquidity costs of exchange and the administrative fees of the clearing company/Huatai. For the liquidity costs, the exchange may charge different fees based on the impact of order liquidity and it is subject to the exchange. Exchange may also refund all or part of the fees due to order liquidity, and the refund will be regarded as administrative fee of Huatai. Huatai reserves the right to adjust the fee standard based on business consideration, and any third-party charges may be modified without prior notice
